

Carolyn MacIntosh

The Spartanburg Downtown Association is a community-based organization that plans, markets, and advocates for Downtown Spartanburg.

The association's goal is to be a guiding force for positive growth and improvement of the downtown area by providing leadership, and marketing as the dynamic center of commerce in the Greater Spartanburg community.

SDA performs services directly related to downtown development, such as promotion and advertising, business retention and recruitment, and planning and problem solving among downtown residents, businesses, property owners, employees, and community leaders.

Carolyn MacIntosh is currently the Vice President and Senior Mortgage Lender at Carolina Alliance Bank in Downtown Spartanburg. She has been a community banker in the Spartanburg area for 20 years.

Carolyn began her banking career at First Federal Savings and Loan of Spartanburg which was later acquired by BB&T. She has also worked for Central Carolina Bank (CCB) and Synovus through their local affiliate National Bank of South Carolina (NBSC). She is well versed in all aspects of banking, lending, compliance, relationship building, business development & networking. She enjoys the challenge of finding the right products and services for her clients, in an ever changing financial world. Her most gratifying professional achievement is helping her clients achieve the dream of homeownership.

Her greatest compliment is retention of her past clients and those clients trusting her with the referral of their children and grandchildren. Carolyn is a member of the Mortgage Bankers Association of the Carolina's and serves on their scholarship committee. She has been recognized in her industry with several awards including, CCB 2001 Rising Star Award, Synovus 2002 Pacesetter Award, 2005 Chairman's Club for Loan Production, and 2005 NBSC Mortgage Production Award for SC.

Additionally, Carolyn serves roles in many community activities including: The 2010 Council Chair for United Way of the Piedmont; Affiliate Member of the Spartanburg Association of Realtors & member of the Equal Housing Opportunity Committee; Member of the Business & Professional Women of Spartanburg Chapter and the current Chair of the March of Dimes Spartanburg Board of Directors. Carolyn has been an advocate and volunteer for the March of Dimes since 1990. She received the 2007 Outstanding Volunteer Award from March of Dimes Spartanburg Chapter. She previously served on the Signature Chef's Auction Committee and March for Babies Revenue committees before being elected to Chair of the Board in 2008.

Carolyn and her husband John have 2 children; Jessica a full time college student and Justin who will be entering the Air Force in The Spring. Carolyn has served on the SDA Board of Directors since 2008 and is currently serving as President.

