

Julie Lonon

The Spartanburg Downtown Association is a community-based organization that plans, markets, and advocates for Downtown Spartanburg.

The association's goal is to be a guiding force for positive growth and improvement of the downtown area by providing leadership, and marketing as the dynamic center of commerce in the Greater Spartanburg community.

SDA performs services directly related to downtown development, such as promotion and advertising, business retention and recruitment, and planning and problem solving among downtown residents, businesses, property owners, employees, and community leaders.

Julie Lonon graduated with a B.A. in Political Science from Coastal Carolina University in 1999 and a M.A. in International Studies from the University of South Carolina in 2003. A native of Spartanburg, she currently serves as the Land Protection Coordinator for the Spartanburg Area Conservancy.

Julie was recently elected to the Board of Trustees for Spartanburg School District 7.

Julie and her husband, Josh, have two children, Alex and Charlie. Julie has served on the SDA Board of Directors since 2008.
